Copyright Transfer Policy of Innovation Insights (ISSN: XXXX XXXX)

Innovation Insights is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity, copyright protection, and ethical publishing. To ensure clarity in the ownership and permissible use of published content, the following Copyright Transfer Policy is applicable to all manuscripts submitted for publication.

1. Copyright Transfer Agreement

Upon acceptance of an article for publication, authors are required to sign a Copyright Transfer Agreement (CTA). This agreement legally transfers the copyright of the work from the author(s) to Innovation Insights, which is managed by Research Beacon Publication. The transfer of copyright includes the exclusive rights to reproduce, distribute, publicly display, and create derivative works of the article in all formats and media, whether now known or hereafter developed.

2. Author Rights and Responsibilities

Although copyright is transferred, Innovation Insights recognizes the importance of authors retaining specific rights. Authors are permitted to:

1. Share the accepted version of the manuscript (post-print) on non-commercial institutional repositories, personal websites, or academic networks, with proper attribution and a link to the journal's official version.
2. Use the published article in teaching, presentations, dissertations, or other academic works with appropriate citation.
3. Reproduce portions of the article in books or future works they author or edit, subject to proper citation and permission from the publisher when required.

Authors must ensure that their work is original, does not infringe upon the rights of others, and has not been published or submitted elsewhere. Any third-party material used in the manuscript must be appropriately cited and accompanied by proof of permission to reproduce it.

3. Publisher Rights

Upon copyright transfer, Innovation Insights gains the exclusive right to:

1. Publish the article in print and/or electronic format.
2. Distribute the article through multiple channels including indexing, abstracting, archiving services, and partner databases.
3. Grant permissions to third parties to use the content in accordance with established licensing arrangements, including but not limited to fair use and education

4. Open Access and Licensing

If the journal operates under an Open Access model (either fully or hybrid), authors may select an appropriate Creative Commons license for their article at the time of submission. In such cases, while the authors retain copyright under certain licenses (e.g., CC BY 4.0), they grant Innovation Insights a non-exclusive license to publish and distribute the work. Authors will be informed of applicable article processing charges (APCs), if any, and licensing options.

5. Plagiarism and Ethical Compliance

All submitted manuscripts undergo rigorous plagiarism screening. In cases of copyright infringement, plagiarism, or unethical publishing practices, the journal reserves the right to retract or remove articles and take necessary legal or editorial action. Authors are advised to consult the journal's Ethics Policy and Submission Guidelines before submission.

6. Withdrawal and Retraction

If an author wishes to withdraw a submitted manuscript, a formal written request must be submitted before acceptance. Post-publication retractions are governed by COPE (Committee on Publication Ethics) guidelines and are permissible in cases of significant errors, ethical violations, or copyright disputes.

7. Dispute Resolution

In the event of any disputes regarding copyright, authorship, or licensing, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with the policies of Innovation Insights and the governing laws of the publisher's jurisdiction. Authors agree to indemnify and hold harmless the journal and publisher from any claims arising out of their breach of this agreement.

8. Final Declaration

By signing the Copyright Transfer Agreement or submitting their article for publication, authors acknowledge and agree to the terms outlined in this policy. The journal maintains the right to revise this policy at any time, and authors will be notified accordingly.
